  - c. A correct prediction of the lowest bottom ten (10) team beating any top eight (8) team will be awarded two (2) bonus points per round.
  - d. A correct prediction of a drawn game will be awarded ten (10) bonus points per game.
  - e. Participant(s) predicting all correct results in a round will be awarded two (2) bonus points per round.
  - f. No points will be awarded or deducted for an incorrect tip.
24. The most points scored for each round will determine the Round Winner. In the event that there is a tie between participants, the participant with the most correct results for the round will be the Round Winner. In the event that there is still a tie between participants, the participant with a correct result and closest margin to the margin of the nominated game will be the Round Winner. In the event that there is still a tie between participants, the participant who completed their tips first will be the Round Winner.
  25. The round winner will win a gift voucher to the value of $25.00.
  26. The most points at the end of the final round will determine the Overall Winner. If points are tied the most correct results will be used to select the Overall Winner. If the tie remains the correct tip and closest margin to the margin of the nominated game of the last round will be used to select the Overall Winner. If a tie remains a count back on the margin game of all previous rounds will be held until an Overall Winner is found. In the event that there is still a tie between participants, the participant who completed their last round tips first will be the Overall Winner.
  27. The Overall Winner will receive a Gift Voucher to the value of $200.00 or a case of premium Australian wine.
  28. Winners will be notified via email and via the website within four (4) days of the final game of the round.
